This 822 square metre block of land is located at the end of a cul-de-sac in a new housing estate, but is still only a short drive from the beautiful beachfront of Forrest Beach. Forrest Beach has one of the nicest beach frontages in North Queensland. The beach area is serviced by a primary school, shops, hotel, doctors. It is approximately 17 kilometres from the township of Ingham. For further details on the property, or the district, or to arrange an inspection contact the action team at Felix Reitano Real Estate & one of the helpful team will assist you. The Reitano family has been selling in the district since 1923. They look forward to assisting you too with your next purchase!
