

6 Harkness Street, Quarry Hill, Vic 3550

House For Sale

Thursday, 14 March 2024

6 Harkness Street, Quarry Hill, Vic 3550

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 2

Type: House

Andrew Murphy
0407303386

$770,000 - $830,000

Nestled in the heart of Quarry Hill, where urban convenience meets timeless elegance. This meticulously crafted residence offers an unparalleled blend of sophistication and vintage charm which is evident as soon as you step inside. The architectural design and floor plan provides flexibility with an open-concept layout, ideal for both casual living and entertaining. The gourmet kitchen is a chefs delight with plenty of bench and cupboard space. The adjacent living and dining areas flow seamlessly, offering a comfortable yet sophisticated ambiance for hosting guests or relaxing by the fireplace. The master suite awaits, offering a serene retreat complete with ensuite and ample closet space. Additional bedrooms and baths provide plenty of room for family and guests, each appointed with the same vintage charm. The interior exudes warmth and elegance, with meticulous attention to detail evident in every corner. High ceilings, expansive windows, and premium finishes enhance the sense of space and light throughout the home. Situated on a spacious elevated allotment with rear access from Graham Street while commanding tree top views. Adequate car accommodation with the double carport which provides access to a basement that offers loads of potential for storage/workshop options along with a wine cellar. Conveniently located in Quarry Hill, residents enjoy easy access to a wealth of amenities with its central location which offers the perfect balance of tranquility and convenience. This property provides vintage features and a great structure which has the hallmarks required for a superb update to create a unite one of a kind home.