Located in popular East Lismore is this comfortable double brick, out of flood home with a loft style third bedroom. The three separate living areas will ensure all your entertaining needs are met, with a spacious family room, an enclosed sunroom and a formal lounge, with a timber ceiling to mirror the stunning cypress pine floors throughout. The cosy brick fireplace that has been converted to gas, makes this a great room to catch up with friends or even retreat with a good book. A practical modest-sized kitchen with stylish wall coverings plus a wrap-around bench, tidy breakfast bar, dishwasher under a timber worktop and separate electric stovetop. The spacious master bedroom features walk-in robe, while all other rooms include original built-in robes. The bathroom has been updated and features a large shower with separate toilet. Outside there is a fully fenced backyard ideal for children and pets, along with a lock-up garage and carport. All this within a short distance of schools, sports fields, Lismore Golf Course and Wyrallah Road Shopping Centre. See this charming property at one of our scheduled opens or call Harry to arrange an inspection.
