

6 Hunter Street, Queenstown, Tas 7467

House For Sale

Sunday, 22 October 2023

6 Hunter Street, Queenstown, Tas 7467

Bedrooms: 2

Bathrooms: 1

Area: 39 m2

Type: House

Rodney Triffett

Offers Over $150,000

On offer here is an inviting two-bedroom home that is centrally located, and could be the holiday escape that you've been looking for! With a great location and a low maintenance block, this leaves you with plenty of time to enjoy the beautiful area that is Queenstown. This could also act as a permanent residence, or potential investment, with the choice ultimately up to you! As you walk through the front door you will arrive at the open plan living/dining/kitchen area. This space is bright and vibrant thanks to the many timber windows letting in plenty of natural light. Both bedrooms are spacious in size, with the master containing two sliding doors which open up to the main area. Along with the timber fixtures in the kitchen, you are provided with electric cooking and some beautiful southern views to the CBD of Queenstown, and beyond! The combined bathroom and laundry provide a separate shower, vanity, and toilet. Queenstown is well on track with its rejuvenation, which is quickly becoming a haven for those looking to take a step back, and enjoy the quiet life. With fantastic growth to our tourism, arts, and much more, the best is yet to come, so why not get in now? With Queenstown also taking the top tourist town in Australia for 2023, this is another added bonus that will contribute to the growth in the years to come. Please call Rodney to discuss further, or to organise an inspection.