Step into an extraordinary Modern Mansion with an elaborate French Provincial façade. This architectural masterpiece offers a sprawling 68 squares of refined luxury, exemplifying the pinnacle of elegance, showcasing elegance at its peak. Located at the prestigious number 6 address, the residence enjoys ideal feng shui 'flow' and falls within the sought-after school catchment zone of Glen Waverley Secondary College (STSA) and Pinewood Primary. Crafted with opulent materials like marble, travertine, and decorative ceilings, this sophisticated new build is a true work of art. Every corner of the home boasts exquisite details that enhance its astonishing beauty. Positioned on an elevated court, the mansion symbolizes happiness and harmony. Its prime location provides convenient access to premier shopping destinations such as The Glen, Pinewood, and Syndal Village, and medical services within reach, and excellent transport connections via the M1 and Eastlink. Designed to embrace natural light, the house features a west-facing frontage, a stunning circular skylight above the staircase that bathes the interiors in beautiful sunlight, while the balcony offers breathtaking sunset views creating a captivating focal point. The home caters to various needs, with ample living space for formal entertaining, remote working, and everyday relaxation. It includes a formal lounge, offices on each floor, a dedicated home cinema, and a free-flowing family wing adorned with north-facing light. The classically elegant kitchen, complete with a hidden butler's pantry, allows culinary indulgence. Miele appliances grace both cooking hubs, while an entertainer's bench serves as a bold centerpiece for creating memorable moments. The bedrooms within this exceptional residence are spectacular in size and design. A ground floor master suite offers convenience, and the master ensuite entices with a freestanding spa bath. Beautiful Mother of Pearl tilework, towering showers, and stylish black tapware bring visual splendor to the bathrooms. Step outside to discover a low-maintenance garden landscaped with evergreen synthetic lawn. The outdoor room invites alfresco gatherings with its BBQ kitchen and statement floor tiles. The property offers security and convenience, electronic gates and a panel lift double garage with internal access. Central heating, refrigerated cooling, and mood-setting LED light strips. Experience the epitome of luxury living in this extraordinary modern mansion.
