Nestled on a desirable 1.5 acre parcel, this picturesque 6-bedroom, 3-bathroom Queenslander-style home is a countryside paradise. With a wrap-around verandah and serene rural views, this property offers the perfect blend of classic charm and modern convenience. Upstairs encompasses multiple living zones, serene views from every turn, 4 spacious bedrooms and two well-appointed bathrooms to ensure family comfort. Downstairs this property showcases a self-contained granny flat with separate access, offering endless possibilities for extended family living or rental income. Car enthusiasts will appreciate the sizable shed, providing room for up to 5 vehicles and machinery. This is your opportunity to experience the best of rural living in Wakefield. The home boasts reverse cycle A/C, solid timber flooring and high ceilings throughout. There are two separate street accesses off Jefferson Road, ideal for both home and business. Whilst this home could benefit from some cosmetic upgrades, it's in excellent condition and presents an opportunity for those with vision to enter this sought-after suburb. We invite you to our pre-market inspection at 3:30pm Saturday, October 21.
