Located in the heart of Scarness on John Street, this triangular house is not just a home; it's a conversation piece and a project waiting for your personal touch. Embrace the unconventional, and make this distinctive property your own. This 2-bedroom, 1-bathroom house is not your average residence – it's a masterpiece of design and endless potential. As you approach, you can't help but notice its distinctive shape, setting it apart in the neighbourhood. What truly makes this property stand out is its generous land size of 728 m², adding an extra layer of uniqueness and providing a canvas for imaginative landscaping or potential expansion. Your dream garden or additional living space – the possibilities are endless. The open floor plan seamlessly integrates the living and dining spaces, making the most of every corner of this distinctive home. The triangular shape doesn't just define the exterior but influences the interior, creating dynamic and interesting living areas. This house isn't just about its shape; it's an invitation to reimagine and renovate. The undefined floor area allows for a creative transformation, giving you the opportunity to design a space that reflects your personality and style. Enjoy the proximity to the beach and the CBD, making this unique triangle house a rare find in a desirable location.
