Stepping through carved teak front gates & into this tropical oasis is like stepping off the plane in Koh Samui! Lovingly built to replicate the charming beach houses of Thailand & South East Asia, this is a property like no other. Located approximately 100m from the shores of beautiful Wonga Beach, this pavilion styled home consists of 2 huts:1. Living area with covered front deck, stylish combined bathroom/laundry & a fully equipped kitchen2. Separate bedroom with newly completed tropical bathroom & an interconnecting deck/outdoor living space - perfect for relaxing on a day bed or enjoying a BBQ under the starsConstructed with love using many restored & recycled materials such as the Sumatran (Dutch Colonial) windows & doors, Balinese travertine marble floor tiles in the wet areas, bamboo flooring in the bedrooms & living spaces - this is an eclectic mix of old & new, with a healthy dose of romance & charm!Fully fenced & private, this would be an ideal holiday home for weekend getaways or full time residence, with modern conveniences like full mobile coverage, fixed wireless NBN etc... Port Douglas is around half an hour away, with the local township of Mossman only 15 minutes south. Daintree River Ferry to the north is a 10 minute drive, plus there are boat ramps in both Wonga Beach & Rocky Point for those that wish to enjoy trips to the Great Barrier Reef or some fantastic fishing spots nearby...
