Sitting on a big corner block along a quiet, local-only street, this beautiful four bedroom property is loaded with character and everyday warmth that you won't easily find elsewhere. It boasts stunningly comfortable and presentable English-pub-style living and entertaining spaces which are an absolute standout. It's just a short walk from Engadine West Public School and nearby reserves. • Framed by tall ceilings and timber accents it enjoys a pleasant warm atmosphere • Bright central kitchen offers easy communication, serves straight to dining • English-inspired downstairs lounge areas with dedicated bar and open fireplace • Built-in wardrobes in three bedrooms, ensuite and air conditioning to the master • Large timber-decked alfresco entertaining area, private and great for hosting • Zero maintenance backyard, multi-layered with multiple sitting/relaxing areas • Abundance of extra storage in laundry plus underhouse storage and garage • Quiet cul-de-sac street, surrounded by reserves, close to Engadine shops
