This is a rare opportunity to own a property with brick veneer in a pristine location. Nestled in a quiet court, this property boasts excellent maintenance, with freshly painted walls and new floor coverings, making it move-in ready. The updated bathroom and spoutings further enhance the appeal of this beautiful home. Additionally, you can enjoy a secure garage with an oversized workshop and a huge yard for your kids and pets. Whether you're a first-home buyer, investor, downsizer, or a family looking for a peaceful court location, this property has something for everyone. With excellent access to schools and recreation reserve, this is a must-see property that you wouldn't want to miss.
