Whether you're entertaining a crowd or enjoying a quiet weeknight dinner with the family, this highly desirable home, defined by its large spaces, thoughtful zoning and impressive combination of alfresco deck, solar heated pool and established gardens with a tropical vibe, is ready for your family's next chapter! Set behind auto gates on an 1905m² allotment (approx.) at the end of a whisper-quiet court, it is just a few minutes from the heart of Diamond Creek and all the sought-after benefits that it brings; this is the kind of place you can immediately feel at home in. THINGS WE THINK YOU'LL LOVE: • The chefs kitchen: spacious, open to all the action, metres of stone bench space, Ilve appliances and a butlers pantry • Auto gates mean you don't have to get out of the car in the rain when you get home! • The separate wing for the bedrooms ensures peace and privacy, while at the front of the house, the party goes on! • With the solar heated pool, decked entertainment spaces and established privacy plants, summers have never looked so good • The ducted vacuum system is the quick and easy solution to looking after the polished timber floors throughout • Functional, copious storage solutions throughout mean a place for everything and clutter-free living
