With a sense of seclusion on a sprawling 2.7-acre block enveloped by lush bushland, this residence offers the perfect blend of tranquillity and coastal allure. Welcome to this council-approved 2-bedroom beach house, thoughtfully designed for comfort and practicality. Enjoy the luxury of gas hot water and the warmth of double-glazed windows that shield you from winter's chill. Embrace cozy evenings by the fireplace, where the crackling flames create an ambiance of serenity. For those hot summer nights, there are reverse cycle units in the living area and one of the bedrooms too. With your own separate storage shed this property effortlessly accommodates your adventurous spirit. Safeguard your boat or surfboards after a thrilling day on the water, knowing they're stored securely. The allure of this haven is amplified by its proximity to the Tasman Peninsula's natural marvels. Explore the captivating Tessellated Pavement, witness the raw power of the Blowhole, and gaze upon the wonder of the Devils Kitchen. All these awe-inspiring wonders are just a stone's throw away, inviting you to embrace the beauty of your surroundings. For beach enthusiasts and fishing connoisseurs, a pristine surf beach, convenient boat ramp, and the promise of exhilarating game fishing experiences await you nearby. And when urban allure beckons, the heartbeat of Hobart's CBD is a scenic 1-hour drive away, offering a world of entertainment, dining, and culture. This remarkable property isn't just a home; it's a sanctuary where comfort meets adventure, where natural wonders and coastal charm converge. Don't miss the chance to make this remarkable Eaglehawk Neck residence your very own.
