Ripe for renovation, this classic brick-and-tile home has good bones and standout features just waiting to be polished into your dream family home. Perfectly liveable with a lick of paint and fresh flooring until you're ready to bring your vision to life, this circa 1970s gem is in well kept original condition in a highly sought-after inner-city location close to schools, shops, parks and beaches, with four good-sized bedrooms over two storeys with elevated suburban views from the rear sunroom. The spacious, air-conditioned living area features beautiful stained glass doors and flows to the large eat-in electric kitchen. The tiled, north-facing sunroom is the perfect spot to sit and relax, with gorgeous views and internal access to the kitchen. Storage can be found in spades on the lower level, with a utility area and storage room plus a double lock-up garage. The fourth bedroom and the laundry with a separate W/C are also located on this level, making it the perfect teenage retreat or guest suite.
