Discover the allure of this delightful three-bedroom brick home, nestled just moments away from the Carlton Beach. Step into a world of comfort and convenience as the light-filled interior beckons you into an open-plan living space. Whether you prefer the warmth of a cozy wood heater on cooler evenings or the year-round comfort of a reverse-style heat pump, this home caters to your every need. The kitchen is boasting ample storage and generous bench space, seamlessly blending convenience with functionality. The family bathroom offers both a separate shower and bath, while the property enhances practicality with a separate laundry providing easy access to the backyard. Designed to accommodate the needs of families, this property also stands as a promising investment opportunity. Its flat, level block makes it an ideal choice for retirees seeking simplicity in their living space. Revel in the tranquility of beachside living and enjoy the added convenience of a double garage and carport. Immerse yourself in the local charm with Hill Street Grocer, a butcher, chemist, bakery, and more, all within arm's reach. Commuting is a breeze, with Hobart just a 35-minute drive away and Sorell a quick 15-minute journey. Don't let this chance slip away-an opportunity to embrace coastal living in a home that perfectly blends comfort, convenience, and investment potential.
