Crafted to create a world of privacy and seclusion, this cherished family home sits nurtured within an oasis of natives, bringing to life a comfortable living experience across zoned entertaining spaces, a north-facing terrace and well-equipped entertainer's kitchen. Defined by a brick exterior, exposed timber ceilings and ample glazing, the three bedroom plus home office residence welcomes swathes of natural light across a practical family layout where entertaining sits at the heart. Opening to enjoy the verdant outlooks of private gardens, informal living space meets with a stone-finished kitchen where ample cabinetry conceals modern appliances including an AEG induction cooktop, wall oven and Fisher & Paykel single dish-drawer. A breakfast bar provides an easy alternative to formal dining, where space unfolds beneath a vaulted timber-lined ceiling for formal entertaining warmed by a wood fire heater. This practical design ensures private retreat for both children and parents, zoned at both ends by sliding doors. Met with garden views, the master bedroom complete with ensuite, built-in robes and dressing table sits privately zoned from the remaining two bedrooms each with built-in robes, home office/potential 4th bedroom, and family bathroom with combined shower and bath, and private toilet. Cocooned within a blissful native garden with a private frontage, this sensational home with a convenient address comes complete with a gas wall heater, rear garden shed, multiple outdoor entertaining areas, raised veggie garden, and double carport with additional off-street parking beyond a secure front gate.
