In an unbeatable location in the sought after pocket of Belgrave South, this quality family home sits on a beautiful half an acre (approx.) block and will provide you with a perfect family lifestyle. Boasting three bedrooms, the master suite with walk through robe and ensuite, study and two bathrooms, there is more than enough room for everyone. An L-shaped lounge room boasts an open fire place and is also highlighted by a brick feature wall with built in cabinetry. Updated with a quality finish, the kitchen is modern, spacious and adjoins another living area and a glass conservatory meals area that is a wonderful spot to sit and enjoy the Japanese inspired gardens, even on a colder day. An extension many years ago has seen the addition of an extra lounge / rumpus room, allowing for yet another living space for all the family to enjoy. Ducted heating can be found throughout the home, and along with the open fire place, gives you wonderful temperature control all year round. Outside, the garden will truly surprise you with its intricate pathways, enchanting timber walkways and colourful garden. This is the ideal setting for anyone wanting a safe and spacious yard for their children to enjoy. Undercover alfresco entertaining is the ideal way to enjoy dinners with family and friends whilst overlooking your perfect garden scenery. Good under house storage, multiple garden sheds and also a double carport have all been included to make for a perfect package in the heart of Belgrave South. Within a very easy walk to Belgrave South Primary School, shops, local bus route and sporting facilities, this property is a rare find in one of the most sought-after areas throughout the Hills.
