This private weatherboard/brick cottage situated down a small one-way street has 2 good sized bedrooms and a separate study, which is ideal for the home office or just somewhere to sit and enjoy the warmth of the winter sun. Lovely polished floor boards throughout add to the character of the home. The larger bedroom has a wall mounted heater. The kitchen is a mix of old and new with modern cooktop/oven along with stainless bench top and new dishwasher. A cosy lounge with wall heater and stand-alone wood burner warms the whole house. The adjoining dining area looks out to a well maintained and sun filled garden. This quiet well situated property is for people who want to live close to all the cafes of South Hobart but also within walking distance of the city. Sorry, No pets.
