It's always worth the wait for that special property to come onto the market! This attractive bluestone home was built in the early days of the Wellington settlement in a prominent position with close proximity to the town centre. Wellington is the perfect spot to maximise value for your dollar and a beautiful place to live. This quality home in a golden location makes for a wise choice. Its central location puts everything at your fingertips with an easy walk to your favourite coffee shop or the beautiful park overlooking the river. For those wanting to take it slow and enjoy life, this is the place for you. This quaint bluestone home features 3 bedrooms, the main with built-in robes, a new kitchen and fully renovated bathroom. The lounge room is positioned in the centre of the home with a slow combustion wood heater and a separate dining/family room at the rear with a split system air conditioner. Outside is a very easy care lawn and gardens with a well fenced secure yard for pets and the kids. Call Sterling Turner 0429 619 478.
