Embraced by beautiful established gardens on its elevated allotment at the top of Portobello Place, this beautifully renovated and incredibly spacious 5-bedroom home is a standout offering in a fabulous, family-focused neighbourhood. Bound to impress thanks to stylish interiors, a tranquil poolside setting and never-to-be-built-out views to the Dandenong Ranges, the smartly appointed two-storey residence offers plenty of room for the entire family to spread out and enjoy. A formal lounge with gas fireplace and dining room with balcony are positioned on the home's upper level and are oriented to take in far-reaching panoramas. Also upstairs are a pool-view family room & sophisticated gourmet kitchen with dual ovens, stone surfaces and light-reflecting mirrored splashback. There is even more living space downstairs thanks to a huge rumpus room with bar - perfect for movie nights, parties and even sleepovers. A chic fully-tiled ensuite and walk-in robe are highlights of the sublime master bedroom. An equally stylish main bathroom with freestanding bath services the rest of the home while a fifth bedroom or study is a highly desirable inclusion. The home also boasts a large laundry and the comfort of ducted heating & cooling. Outside, a living vertical garden is a focal point of the poolside oasis which also includes an undercover entertaining area, while mod grass and automated irrigation mean the glorious gardens are extremely easy to maintain. Wrapping up a truly faultless family package are a double auto garage and solar heating for the pool. Caulfield Grammar, Jells Park, public transport and Wheelers Hill shopping centre are all within easy reach and this peaceful, family-focused cul-de-sac is just moments to numerous public schools including Waverley Meadows and Jells Park primary schools and Wheelers Hill Secondary College.
