Stockton Grange is pleased to introduce to the market this charming brick veneer home situated on a generous 589sqm corner block, offering both comfortable living and future potential. Inside, you'll find three good size bedrooms, with one featuring a built-in wardrobe for convenient storage. The kitchen, complete with ample cupboard space and a gas cooktop, is perfect for preparing meals and enjoying family dinners in the adjacent dining area. The functional bathroom, while retaining its original design, includes a bathtub for relaxation. Enjoy the convenience of instantaneous gas hot water throughout the home. Outside, there is a single carport tucked securely behind gates, providing safe and hassle-free parking. This property holds exciting potential. With council approval, you could explore the option of adding a granny flat, offering additional living space or income potential. Additional features include original polished timber floorboards, large external laundry, aluminium windows, linen closet, quiet cul-de-sac, and nearby public transport. With its convenient location and room for future expansion, this property is a great opportunity for first-home buyers and investors. For further information, please call Sally on 0439 322 250.
