This neat lowset family home is located in a much sort after area of the Ingham township. It has very minimal flood effect with the house out of the known level. The home has 3 airconditioned bedrooms (2 built in), tidy kitchen with gas top stove, electric oven & dishwasher & split system airconditioning in the living area. The bathroom has shower, plunge bath and vanity, while the toilet is located separately. The 3 bedrooms have polished timber floors. The home has a front undercover patio that you could relax on in the morning & a rear patio that you could relax on in the afternoon. The rear patio has a ramp. The home has a carport at the front and a colorbond roof. The 1,012 square metre (just over 1/4 acre) block has plenty of room for access down the side and fenced on 3 sides, A storage shed is located at the rear. The property is close to high school, golfcourse, racecourse & parklands and a short drive to primary schools & hospital.
