Ina Flanagan is thrilled to reveal this amazing six-bedroom, three-bathroom family home sitting on a big 681sqm block in great location. Be thankful for low maintenance living and entertaining areas all designed to suit your desires. Offering great space for growing families who will love the open plan living/dining area that opens to an inviting entertaining area. On the first level of potentially your new home you are greeted by a very generous formal lounge, dining, separate study open plan living and the minor bedrooms. The outstanding kitchen area is central with ease to service of the dining area. It's complete with abundant quality bench space that also offers piles of cupboards, a large double fridge recess, a range of quality stainless appliances, and massive walk-in pantry. Overlooking the home's primal gathering point, you're sure to never miss out on any action – day or night. Head on outside to the entertaining area and perfect sized low maintenance gardens, gathering area with plenty of room for you and your friends to have your favourite drink and gasbag while the children play. Not to forget that great workshop/shed area. Wanting a pool, well there is room for that too! The bedrooms are effortlessly completed with built-in robes and majority have split systems. These rooms are serviced by the second bathroom, but bedroom two has its own ensuite. Located on the second level of this home is the primary bedroom which offers privacy, natural lighting and is no short of storage with large walk-in wardrobe, and the ideal sized en-suite featuring a large vanity with adequate storage & double shower. The parents will have it all with this home as just off their suite is another area where they sit back and watch what they want, not to say this multipurpose room can be used anyway they want perhaps a gym. There is also a minor bedroom which can be utilized as a nursery if desired. Features to this home have clearly not been forgotten, this home includes • Split reverse air conditioning units to majority of the rooms. • Caravan/boat storage • Solar panels • Formal lounge and dining • 3rd lounge area • Storeroom • Roller shutters to the front lower level • Reticulation • Gas hot water system • Workshop/shed Situated in a great location of Success, a close distance to the future Gateways Shopping Centre, close to cafes and primary school, parklands, public transport, train station and easy Freeway access, this property really is in primary position.
