

6 Sloping Main Drive, Sloping Main, Tas 7186

Sold House

Friday, 15 March 2024

6 Sloping Main Drive, Sloping Main, Tas 7186

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 1

Parkings: 4

Area: 518 m2

Type: House

Kate Storey
0427532000

Chloe Wright
0427954462

$565,000

Perfect home for a permanent lifestyle or as a couple of families to share for a getaway destination in this spectacular location, where memories are created and shared by all the family. This easy-care four bedroom home has a newly installed reverse cycle air-conditioner and the original, free-standing wood-heater in the living area for ambient comfort all-year-round. The undercover front area is conveniently placed near the garage/boatshed, with enough solar panels on-top to seriously reduce, if not make your electricity bills vanish. Beautifully presented inside with floating timber floors and modern roll-down blinds. The modern kitchen, with dishwasher and glimpses of the beach, enjoys direct access to the undercover entertaining area, over looking the tranquil rural outlook. Ideal for a BBQ with friends and family over.-Perfect base for coastal lifestyle-Low maintenance, beachside dream-Upgraded wiring, completely re-clad inside and out and insulated -Approx. 518 sqm block with 4-bedroom home -Side lockable garage (4 x 11m approx.) -New windows throughout. Mostly level back yard, property fully fenced-Explore the surrounding nature reserves-This property can be sold mostly FULLY furnished.Relax and enjoy life at Sloping Main, in the South-East of Tasmania. Only a short distance from your front door is the beautiful 3.3km long beach between Blackjack Point and Northern Lobster Point. A boat is the best way to fish this area, or shore-based fishing to catch squid at the northern end. Hobart is approximately 108kms (approx. 1hr and 30 mins drive away.) There is a school, shops, medical center and chemist and much more located at Nubeena; approx. 20 mins drive away.