Infusing style, a balance of urban design and contemporary flare, this home embodies what a family home should be in every regard. Warm and inviting this well-designed property captures the true meaning of home, offering something for every member of the family to enjoy. The culinary kitchen has stainless steel 900mm appliances, and phenomenal storage solutions with a spacious walk-in pantry all overlooking the generously sized meals and family area. Whilst offering the flexibility of a great floor plan incorporating a spacious formal lounge, 4 spacious bedrooms. The large master offers a stunningly designed ensuite bathroom with quality fittings and finishes a double vanity and a large open walk-in-robe sector. The addition of an open study is a great touch, whether you're studying or working from home. The modern styling flows continually through to the remaining 3 deluxe bedrooms and serviced by a meticulous central bathroom. Extend your entertaining to the undercover alfresco whilst enjoying the low-maintenance rear yard. Other quality features of this already impressive home are split system cooling, ducted heating, high ceilings, high door frames, front and rear low-maintenance gardens, and a remote-controlled double garage with internal access. The low-maintenance living it offers is further accentuated by its location in the highly coveted Saratoga estate, you are within close proximity to freeway access via Hacketts/Sneydes road, beautiful parklands and Saratoga picnic area, Featherbrook College, Featherbrook Shopping Centre, as well as local public transport options via bus or your option between Williams Landing and Hoppers Crossing Train Stations.
