This meticulously maintained home presents a picturesque image of charm, nestled in a serene neighbourhood. The two-story brick veneer structure not only ensures a solid foundation but also blends practicality with comfort in its layout. Featuring three bedrooms, The master bedroom, in particular, stands out with its walk-in robe and private balcony, evoking a tranquil retreat. Additionally, a separate office space with built-in cupboards adds versatility to accommodate modern lifestyle needs. The highlight of the home lies in its seamless integration of indoor and outdoor living spaces. Enhanced by blackbutt timber floors and beautiful timber sliding doors, the open-plan design floods the interior with natural light, fostering an inviting atmosphere for gatherings or relaxation. The addition of a lovely deck extending from the side of the home offers an extra private space to unwind, enriching the overall experience. The alfresco entertaining area, overlooking the tranquil rear lawns and gardens leading to the wetlands, provides a serene backdrop for leisure or hosting guests. This proximity to nature further enhances the home's appeal, fostering a sense of tranquillity and connection with the environment.
