Ray White Strathalbyn is proud to present this 5 bedroom, 2 bathroom, 2009-built home situated on a generous 748 sqm allotment. Look no further - you've discovered your forever home. This exquisite residence on St Andrews Drive boasts a wealth of features that promise to captivate discerning homeowners. With five generously proportioned bedrooms and an array of storage solutions, this property offers the ultimate in spacious and practical living. The outdoor area is an absolute gem, featuring an outdoor pizza oven, a built-in fish tank, and lush green lawns. It's a haven that combines luxury with functionality, and it's a residence that won't stay on the market for long. The interior of this home reveals five spacious bedrooms, with the master suite offering a large walk-in robe and a generous en-suite featuring a double vanity. Bedrooms 2, 3, and 4 also offer their own walk-in robes, providing ample space for your family's belongings. The living areas within this home are equally spacious, affording children a dedicated area to play and explore, while parents enjoy their own private retreat to relax and unwind after a long day's work. The kitchen is impeccably designed with growing families in mind. It boasts high-quality stainless steel appliances, abundant cupboard space, and a pantry that's perfect for culinary enthusiasts to craft their culinary masterpieces. The crowning jewel of this residence is its outdoor space, designed for the ultimate in entertaining and relaxation. An undercover veranda area offers a delightful space for friends and family to gather, while the outdoor pizza oven allows the family chef to showcase their culinary talents. Surrounded by potted herbs and spices, it's a paradise for creating homemade pizzas with the freshest ingredients. Your children will revel in the spacious lawn area, offering ample room for energetic play, while the built-in fish tank keeps their curious minds engaged. Adding to the charm is the well-established, low-maintenance garden that envelops your private oasis, ensuring your weekends are reclaimed from extensive upkeep.
