Located on a 2123m² block in a quiet neighbourhood of Heywood, is this tidy and light and bright 3 bedroom home. The lounge is open and bright and you can watch the Fitzroy River flow on by across the road in winter whilst curled up in front of the wood log fire. Plus in the warmer months there is the reverse cycle air conditioner to keep you cool in the combined dining/kitchen area. Accessed via the spacious laundry is the impressive undercover and fully enclosed entertaining area which is ideal for another living space. From the undercover area you step into the fully enclosed backyard complete with a fire pit, wood shed, chook pen and space for the veggie patch. With access to the backyard, there is also a double bay shed with workshop.
