This property has a lot to offer - a modern sunny kitchen with stainless steel European appliances, with direct access to a good size entertaining deck and BBQ area overlooking Glenorchy all the way down to the river Derwent. The lounge room has both wood heating and reverse cycle heating and of course there is solar panels on the roof to reduce those power bills. There are three generous sized bedrooms, neat and tidy bathroom, separate laundry, ample storage and workshop underneath. The block is fully landscaped with concrete drive and carport. The home is ideally located close to shops and school. This property is sure to impress, so book now to arrange your inspection you will not be disappointed.
