Discover comfort and convenience in this inviting 3-bedroom residence nestled just moments from town and the serene local creek. As you meander into the cozy home you are greeted by a sunroom that can be used for either an office, or another bedroom if need. The 3 generous bedrooms surround the carpeted lounge room with a wood heater. The master bedroom is complete with built in cupboards and a new ensuite. The Kitchen and dining room are awaiting your personal touch, but are made charming with the open fire place that is awaiting a new wood heater. The Master bathroom suits the needs of everyone in the family and has the convenience of the laundry at your fingertips. The fully fenced backyard has space for the kids or pets to roam freely. The 4 bay shed has two lockable bays and two bays are perfect for a carport. The shed is also high enough for a caravan. This property is perfect if your trying to break into the property market or to kick off you investment portfolio. Why not give Julie from Granite Belt Property Management a call and organise your inspection today.
