Karen Cleland would like to present 6 Tanglewood Parkway, Dawesville to the marketplace a modern home located in an established and enviable spot overlooking a bushland reserve close to the estuary. This home is the perfect choice for families that are seeking an abundance of space with the added bonus of having a huge backyard. The undercover alfresco is fully enclosed providing a peaceful and tranquil living experience. There is enough room for a pool or just let the kids enjoy the space. A modern home styled in a neutral and minimalistic design so there is nothing for you to do. Just move right in and enjoy living life.

- Built in 2017, 713m² and located opposite a bushland reserve.
- King master with walk in robe and stylish ensuite
- Queen size minor bedrooms all with double robes
- Modern kitchen with stainless steel appliances, walk-in pantry
- Open plan dining, separate theatre with double doors
- Soft neutral designed interiors with vinyl plank flooring
- Undercover alfresco with lovely, manicured gardens
- Double garage, garden shed, reverse cycle aircon

You are just moments from Warrungup Spring Reserve, Dawesville Foreshore, and local shops. Schools, public transport, amenities, beaches, and sporting clubs are within easy reach, as is access to major roads travelling north or south.
