COUNTRY WRAPPED UP IN A COASTAL SETTING Built in the late 90's by a farming family, who were inspired to place a touch of country into a beautiful coastal setting. Sprawled over an impressive 2.2 acres, you can enjoy the best of both worlds. Space & privacy, yet just 5 minutes to Innes Park Beach! The most charming of modern-day Queenslanders, this home will warm your heart. Stunning wrap around verandahs with rolled roofing set the tones for this classy residence. Greeted with high ceilings, traditional timber fret-work and a combination of hardwood & laminate flooring, the charm will absorb your desire to live here. A comfortable size floor plan hosting four bedrooms, 2 bathrooms with multiple living spaces. Tastefully renovated kitchen, ensuite & laundry all blend nicely with the original trend & style set in the 90's. The home has beautiful coastal breezes which roam freely, yet ceiling fans & ducted air-conditioning are present for those warmer, still days. The outdoors are a dream to explore, set on 2.2 acres, you have the space to do what you like, yet a nice size to easily maintain. A large saltwater inground swimming pool is a nice way to cool down after the yard work. A large 3 bay shed with an additional awning giving you four bays of cover, as well as the single lock up by the residence. The immediate house yard is fenced if you wish to keep the pooch nearby, otherwise let them roam across the entire block. The property can run efficiently with a competent battery solar power system. Envision your family here, space, privacy & all just a few minutes to the beach. You will discover happiness here, this property will be sure to create memories for years to come!
