Are you after a home where all of the hard work has been done for you? This is the one! A lovely three-bedroom, fully renovated home that is waiting for its new owners. Carpet in the bedrooms and living area, the home is fully insulated, and a split system add to the warmth of this magnificent home. There is the convenience of floating floorboards in the wet areas. The hard work has continued for you outside with a great entertaining deck, boasting a northerly aspect looking over the gumtrees and bushland at the rear of the property. A well fenced yard with raised garden beds and garden shed all add to the delight of this property.
