Located in a quiet no through road in the ever growing township of the Latrobe sits this beautifully presented, renovated family home. The home consists of three great sized bedrooms, one bedroom having a built in wardrobe and the master suite having a walk in wardrobe. The third bedroom is comfortably big enough for a built in to be installed. The home has an open living and dining design with a sunken lounge, the wrap around windows not only act as a lovely feature to the property but allow plenty of natural light and warmth in. The kitchen has been fully renovated with quality appliances throughout featuring a Westinghouse wall oven, 4 burner induction cooktop, range hood and Ariston dishwasher. Your climate needs will take care all year round with a centrally located wood heater in the main living and two reverse cycle air conditioners, one being wall in the lounge area and a brand new floor mounted one in the hallway. The renovations continue into the bathroom with new floor coverings, a deep stand alone bath, separate shower and toilet. Further upgrades and renovations to the property include, floor coverings, LED downlighting, freshly painted externally in areas, brand new garage door and window furnishings. Enjoy this summer with your family and friends with your very own outdoor pool, the pool is fully fenced with an enclosed pump shed and has just had a brand new sand filter system installed. Outside the yard is safe and secure for your kids and pets to play around safely, a lovely entertainment area with a large rumpus/pool room with a second bathroom featuring a shower and toilet and your very own sauna. This is a great family home where you can simply move in and start enjoying with all the hard work already done. For further information, please call the listing agent Jakub Lehman today.
