Tucked behind a picket fence and leafy front garden, this charming single-fronted Victorian presents an exciting opportunity for home buyers and astute investors alike. Soaring ceilings and original period features are accompanied by functional spaces to ensure you can move straight in with nothing to do, while scope for further renovation and enviable room to extend (STCA) will excite those seeking a home to put their stamp on. Located within walking distance to public transport, Footscray Central and easy access into the CBD the home features:

- Two comfortable sized bedrooms
- Light filled lounge area with allocation for a fireplace
- Functional kitchen with original oven and meals area
- Central bathroom with laundry facilities
- Good size backyard, ideal for entertaining
