Presenting spacious and secluded living in one of Toorak's most exclusive cul-de-sacs, this infinitely charismatic 1970s 'Palm Springs' style home offers immediate comfort with scope to refresh over time or reimagine from the ground up (STCA). Surrounded by lush landscaping, a delightfully private and set-back interior sees abundant window coverage and soaring, raked ceilings afford a bright, airy, and relaxing ambiance. With garden views from every corner, a fluid lower level features a wraparound kitchen and adjacent dining zone, while substantial front and rear living areas each flow effortlessly into sun-soaked outdoor settings. Served by a modernised ensuite with dual basins and chic black accents, a sumptuous main bedroom complements a pair of upstairs guest rooms, together served by built-in robes and an in-vogue main bathroom with combined shower/bath. An ideal space to unwind with a morning coffee or afternoon novel, a light-filled retreat doubles as an expansive fourth bedroom, while further highlights include premium carpet and slate floors, rain showers to bathrooms, a downstairs powder room/third WC, central sauna, full-size laundry, and secure double carport with two additional driveway spaces. Zoned to Toorak Primary while near some of Melbourne's finest independent colleges, it's an easy walk to scattered parks and gardens, tranquil Yarra trails, city-bound trams, Hawksburn Station, and the renowned shopping, dining, and nightlife of Toorak and Hawksburn Villages, with CityLink just moments away.
