Welcome to your new dream home - 60 Benenden Avenue Butler! Open the solid double entry doors and step into your private parent's retreat or home theatre, sit back relax and watch a movie while your custom blinds block out the light. Walk through to your kitchen, you will love the views out to the alfresco that has been finished to perfection with decking and beautiful manicured gardens. After dinner simply turn on the dishwasher, slide open the double mesh screen doors and step straight out onto the decking for a glass of wine while listening to the waterfall. Further back is another separate garden area which is also a great place to sit and relax. Wake up in your luxurious master bedroom and have a quick shower in comfort with the upgraded fittings and shower screens, slide open the impressive three way mirrored sliding doors and immediately step into your huge wardrobe. The kids and guests are going to love the size of the double bedrooms which all have built in robes and with three separate split system air conditioners the house will be just the right temperature all year round. In the second bathroom, light the candles and enjoy a nice warm bath with the natural light directed through the skylight. Enjoy cooking breakfast with stainless steel appliances and making the most of your breakfast bar. Customize your kitchen and make use of all the cupboard space. SOUND GOOD??... WELL IT IS...!!! Built by Dale Alcock Homes this honestly sets the benchmark as one of Butlers BEST finished homes. Well positioned close to Butler Central with shopping and train station, local schools and parks, lake with Dome Cafe and all that this awesome estate has to offer...!!! Wake up...because it's time to live the dream!!!... See you at the first home open or call ASAP to submit your offer!
