This is what all first home buyers are chasing right now, a perfect low maintenance 3 bedroom home. This home has been well designed to make the maximum use of its 381 square metre block with a great front yard and a single drive through garage so you can access your cute back yard with trailers etc... Inside the bedrooms are generous and there is ensuite access to the three-way bathroom from the master suite which also has a walk in robe.. There is air conditioning and all the creature comforts you would expect but the biggest draw card with this home has to be the large living areas. For a home of this size the two large separate living areas are a real game changer. The north facing kitchen is full of light and the ideal spot to plan your day with your freshly brewed coffee. There is also a great outdoor entertaining area so you get another living space as well. Only a short stroll to schools, shops and sporting fields this home is perfectly positioned for the perfect Bligh Park life. Call the Adam Buchert Team Today
