Welcome to 60 Jacaranda Street nestled at the end of a quiet cul-de-sac with parklands nearby and convenient to schools, Wynnum Plaza and transport. Neatly presented, with refreshed and updated kitchen and bathroom and much more. This charming low set brick home will attract many buyers wanting a home to move in and enjoy from day 1. Having three living areas creates space for a young family, and a yard perfect for the kids to safely play. The rear pergola provides the perfect area for undercover get-togethers, evening meals, or relaxing in the shade and adjoins the rear family room via sliding doors. Tastefully renovated, the kitchen boasts stone benchtops, dishwasher, and sizeable pantry, and an updated tiled bathroom with new fixtures. All bedrooms and the family room have split system air-conditioners for all year round comfort, & fans throughout. The original garage has been converted to an extra living space, great for a kids playroom, craft room, home business or office. Car accommodation has not been compromised, having a 2 car carport, keeping access to the home easy and undercover. A rear garden shed can store the bikes and mower and the yard is lined with palms for privacy. A necessity these days for the environment and cost of living, the home boasts solar power and solar hot water. This home has all you need for a comfortable and easy care property. Presentable inside and out. Well suited to 1st Home Buyers and Investors alike. You will not be disappointed. This home will not last long.
