A catalogue of exceptional advantages complements the location of this original, flexible home which currently retains all the classic retro hallmarks of its era. The opportunity to retain elements of its character while you renovate is matched by equally tempting scope to consider a contemporary re-build or an impressive development, (STCA) with Paisley Park just around the corner. Proximity to Bay Fit Leisure Centre, Second Avenue Deli, The Circle's shopping hub, Altona North Primary School and Millers Junction enhances the outstanding appeal and potential of this ideal project property.

- Traditional façade of pure retro authenticity
- Period feel defines living and dining spaces
- Classic original central kitchen/meals area
- Sky-lit, with a modern dish-washer added
- Three or four bedrooms with built-in robes
- Bathroom plus ensuite for added comfort
- Generous laundry, separate storage area
- Northerly rear aspect adds to the attraction
- Garage/workshop and side drive parking

The combination of position, proportions and potential, which is always tempting, clearly defines this address. Decide, define and design the future in the way that fits best, STCA.
