Positioned perfectly on a corner with views of the waterfront, you'll be proud to call this exceptionally designed 4-bedroom residence home. Enter the home and immediately appreciate the abundance of light and space. The generous open-plan kitchen and living area boast water views, providing a perfect blend of indoor and outdoor spaces, ideal for entertaining and day-to-day living. The downstairs bedroom offers direct access to your oversized private garden. Downstairs you will also find a spacious laundry area and a sizeable basement space. The home boasts an incredibly well-thought-out and flexible floor plan with endless possibilities. It's perfect for a growing family, a couple looking to downsize, as a holiday home, or as a long-term investment adaptable for ever-changing uses. The stunning master suite features a walk-in robe (WIR) and a private terrace, once again capitalising on the breath-taking water views. With a double car garage, driveway access, and a private front garden, this residence offers everything you need and more for a practical and enjoyable lifestyle. The location speaks for itself. It's ideally positioned to capitalise on views of the stunning George's River and is in close proximity to the area's finest shops, restaurants, educational institutions, bus transport, waterfront parks, and is near both the Sydney Airport and Sydney CBD.
