

60 Turquoise Way, Kingston, Tas 7050

Sold House

Wednesday, 4 October 2023

60 Turquoise Way, Kingston, Tas 7050

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 4

Area: 697 m2

Type: House

Leigh Duff

0429107108

$905,000

Nestled upon a 697sqm, north-facing plot, this beautifully crafted four bedroom family residence beckons your attention. Upon entering the home, a sense of expansiveness envelops you thanks to the soaring ceilings that grace this striking property. The generously sized, sunlit master bedroom, comes with a walk-in robe and ensuite, offering both space and seclusion. A dedicated office or study space is discreetly located in proximity to the master suite. The well designed kitchen, boasting top-tier European appliances, seamlessly transitions into the open-plan dining and living areas which serve as the heart of this dwelling. Thoughtful architectural elements, including heightened ceilings, celestial windows and skylights, infuse this space with a refreshing, contemporary, and immaculate ambiance. From the dining area, an astutely designed sliding door establishes a graceful connection to the practical yet alluring alfresco zone. A bi-fold window further enhances the sense of integration with the outdoor entertaining area. This versatile space is an idyllic setting for hosting gatherings, family reunions, and keeping a watchful eye on pets or young children as they frolic outdoors while you remain comfortably ensconced within the residence. At the rear of the home, three generously proportioned bedrooms, a separate toilet, and a beautifully appointed main bathroom await. The landscaped rear yard is complemented by an elevated garden area, offering additional space and versatility in the outdoor expanse. The spacious double garage and adjoining laundry comes equipped with an over height roller door, offering the versatility to accommodate roof racks, as well as vehicle-mounted accessories like kayaks and storage units with ease. This residence boasts double-glazed windows as well as insulated walls and ceilings, ensuring a consistently ideal indoor climate and exceptional energy efficiency for this thoughtfully designed property. In brief, the exquisitely crafted residence effortlessly combines style with functionality, offering a versatile and pragmatic living space that caters to the needs of the entire family. Contact Leigh to inspect this property today.