Nestled within the historic Masonic Club building dating back to 1927, this fully renovated penthouse boasts panoramic views stretching from the MCG to Flinders Street Station and the iconic Forum. Stunning floorboards, striking triple glazed steel framed windows, and French doors enhance generous open plan living and dining spaces complimented by a cook's kitchen, powder room, and entertaining deck with built in bench seating. Upstairs features a spacious master with ensuite, two further bedrooms and family bath. A second-floor terrace provides stunning views, enhancing the generous, light-filled loft-style living. Additional features secure access, ample storage, zoned heating and cooling, and coveted secure storage area. Positioned high above Hosier Lane, with Melbourne's best restaurants at your doorstep, it epitomises the vibrant lifestyle associated with Melbourne city living.
