With its sophisticated and award-winning architectural design, "the Mews" apartment showcase a luxurious and modern inner city lifestyle. Located within the master plan South City Square and just 2km from the city. The apartment itself maximizes the use of all its space with an open plan, a great sized kitchen and a decent size bedroom and balcony. This low maintenance, well positioned apartment is the ideal home for a busy professional, or would make a great investment property. With the immense growth expected in Woolloongabba over the next decade with the completion of the cross-river rail project, and of course, the Olympics, this property is not to be missed. Enjoy the tremendous city views from the rooftop which boasts a stunning infinity pool, relaxing BBQ area surrounded by beautiful gardens, and private dining areas. The modern ground floor at South City Square has been designed to host a wide range of retailers, including gourmet butchers, fishmongers, coffee roasters, cheese specialists and more. South City Square is a well-connected location, ideally positioned to access all of Brisbane. Whether it's walking, riding or taking public transport, everything that is so well loved about Brisbane is just minutes away.
