Situated in the heritage Foy and Gibson precinct, this light-flooded apartment in a luxury block designed by award-winning Elenberg Fraser Architects is a brilliant apartment waiting to be called home. In the heart of the Collingwood cafe precinct, moments from the city-bound Smith Street tram and the new arts precinct, this impressive residence with lift entry from an expansive lobby offers two double bedrooms (BIRs, ensuite to main); a generous living/dining room open to a stylish kitchen (premium appliances) and balcony with panoramic northern views; second walk-in shower bathroom and euro laundry. Including basement parking adjacent to the lift, and access to residents' BBQ garden and pool, this appealing property features limed oak floors and reverse-cycle air conditioning.
