A beautiful illustration of the style and sophistication that are such hallmarks of the Bellview Apartments building, this bright, inviting property makes perfect sense as an address or as an investment. Balcony views from the living/dining domain add visual allure to the vibrancy and the luxury while an open-plan kitchen reveals stone benches, integrated storage and stainless steel appliances. The look is alluring, the feel is fantastic. An additional balcony is accessed from each of the floor-plan's 2 double bedrooms, including a main bedroom accompanied by an elegant ensuite. A second bathroom that conveys comparable contemporary excellence makes its own contribution to the appeal of spaces that are secure, seductive and kept constantly comfortable by split system heating/cooling. Appreciate allocated garaging and storage in a building that's situated south of Bell Street so that Bell station, Ray Bramham Gardens and the best of both Preston and Thornbury can be quickly, conveniently accessed at any time.
