A landmark development in the heart of Collingwood. Blending contemporary design with practical spaces and lush airy gardens. The Haus is perfectly located on Hotham & Smith Street within walking distance to some of Melbourne's best restaurants, bars and cafés. The apartment is designed with practical spaces in an ultra-modern feel, blends the divide between inner-city apartment living and open green outdoor areas. The living area is finished to high specification, with crisp white walls and luxurious timber flooring. Leading onto a kitchen with plenty of cabinet space and brand new appliances. Includes dishwasher. The bedroom comes with built in robes and rich wool blend carpets. Whilst the bathroom comes with stainless steel fixtures and fittings, with modern tiling and a high end feel. The unit also comes with a secure underground car space, air con and a storage cage. Within walking distance to one of Melbourne's most highly rated cafés Pavlov's Duck, Melbourne's best burgers Easey's and a number of the best bars in Melbourne. The location has it all and inspection is a must. To register your interest in this property, please click on 'Request an Inspection Time' and enter your details using our online system.
