Perched with a captivating view in the heart of Box Hill, "Panorama" is conveniently adjacent to Box Hill Gardens, shopping centres and train station, this luxury residence provides a comprehensive urban experience. Designed with the utmost luxury in mind and crafted by award-winning international architects, Peddle Thorpe, Panorama's curvaceous and sculptural design transcends all design norms. Heralded as the future of modern living in Box Hill, the glass atria offer all residences an abundance of light and air, while gardens and retreats provide the ultimate in natural serenity. Panorama's bathrooms provide superior comfort and contemporary style. Featuring large stone tiles, timber shelf inlays, concealed cisterns and the latest in designer fittings, they invite every resident to experience five-star hotel living. Panorama's carefully considered range of bespoke materials, fixtures and finishes create a luxurious home environment that is guaranteed to impress. With light and dark timber options, high quality stone and meticulous design. Panorama's elegant residential lobby recreates the experience of a luxury hotel, with natural fluted light stone offset by elegant gold chandeliers and striking design details. This stylish space boasts a generous waiting lounge, a secure entry system and an internal mail room with lockable letter boxes for every resident. Resort-style facilities include a fully equipped gym, a luxury rooftop garden, function room and elegant dining spaces, along with enviable views across Melbourne's city skyline. Exclusive retail outlets and eateries located along the ground floor provide all the buzz and convenience of urban living, only moments from your door. Welcoming garden retreats throughout the building's atria create space to relax and rejuvenate. With a private podium garden and enchanting rooftop terraces, Panorama provides a secluded and peaceful environment to entertain family
