Discover the best in urban beachside living from this chic corner apartment, delivering front-row northern city views and an alluring lifestyle complemented by an unbeatable location. With a keen eye for detail, the high-end interior flows directly to open-plan living and dining areas, seamlessly integrating with a modern Miele kitchen, complete with stone countertops and an integrated dishwasher, perfect for entertainers with a show-stopping north-facing balcony that captures the best of Melbourne's skyline. Brand new engineered oak floors and high ceilings accentuate the light-filled hallway, leading to a main bedroom with a private balcony capturing the afternoon sun, mirrored built-in wardrobes, and an elegant ensuite bathroom. There's a lot to love, with plenty of storage, an additional stylish bathroom, a second double bedroom with built-in robes, and a tranquil built-in study. This captivating opportunity also includes modern amenities such as split-system air conditioning, a security intercom system, a Euro-style laundry, lift access, and two basement parking spaces, one with a storage cage. Located moments from Port Melbourne Primary School and Albert Park College, steps from Bay Street's choice of cafes, dining options and shops, and minutes from the beach, this is a solid investment or an ultimate beachside pad for busy professionals.
