Spanning across 8.12 hectares or 20.06 acres, this land offers the perfect opportunity to own a piece of authentic Australian bushland and build your forever home. Immersed in the natural beauty of Australia, the property boasts towering gums and generously sized semi-cleared areas. This allows you to truly embrace the essence of Torrington and explore the stunning national parks and fossicking areas that the district has to offer. It's an ideal location for nature enthusiasts and those seeking tranquility. Partial fencing on three sides provides some boundaries, and the land features a mix of flat and undulating terrain, adding variety to the landscape. The property's seclusion amidst the bushland offers privacy and an opportunity to enjoy the serenity of the surroundings. While nestled in nature, the property is still conveniently located within a 20-minute drive to the village of Deepwater. There, you can find local shops, a pub, and even a brewery, providing some amenities within easy reach. Additionally, the nearby townships of Glen Innes and Tenterfield are only a 50-minute drive away, offering further options for shopping and services. Overall, 61 Catarrh Creek Road presents a unique and unmissable opportunity to own a substantial piece of land in a picturesque Australian bush setting. It's an enticing prospect for those looking to create their dream home and immerse themselves in the natural beauty of the Torrington region.
