

61 Cunningham Street, Bingara, NSW 2404

Sold House

Thursday, 9 November 2023

61 Cunningham Street, Bingara, NSW 2404

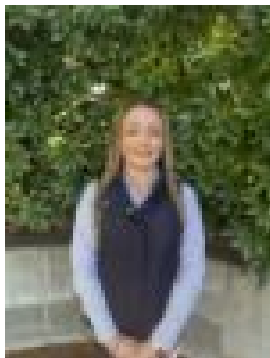

Bedrooms: 2

Bathrooms: 1

Parkings: 1

Area: 809 m2

Type: House

Joelle Thompson

$215,000

New to the market is this cozy 2 Bedroom home in a prime position. Literally walking distance to everything. Cypress Timber Weatherboard with cypress polished floors throughout. Main bedroom is a large space with great storage area in the built in wardrobe. Second bedroom is also a great size. Bathroom has large shower, vanity and toilet, And continuous electric hot water system. Lounge is central to the home, with french doors opening to the front verandah, also features a bar between the lounge and dining area. Kitchen has plenty of storage, electric stove and dishwasher. There is a second toilet located in the laundry, and there is a back sunroom which leads out to the back yard. The home has a wood fireplace and evaporative air conditioning throughout. Fully fenced yard with colorbond on three sides. Large shed with Garage great for a man cave or teenager retreat, with its own fireplace. It also has concrete floor and power connected. There is no denying this house needs some finishing touches. But if you have the time, and some TLC this will be a fantastic investment, be it your first home or investment property. Book your inspection today, Joelle 0477 050 047